

IrrisAT Privacy Policy

Jan 2018

CSIRO built the IrrisAT website in conjunction with partners as a free website. This SERVICE is provided by CSIRO at no cost and is intended for use as is.

This document is used to inform website visitors regarding our policies with the collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Information if anyone decided to use our Service.

If you choose to use our Service, then you agree to the collection and use of information in relation to this policy. The Personal Information that we collect is used for providing and improving the Service. We will not use or share your information with anyone except as described in this Privacy Policy.

Information Collection and Use

For an improved user experience, to use our Service, we require you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information. This information is in the form of your name and email address which is provided to us when you sign-in using your Google Account. This information will be retained by us and used as described in this privacy policy.

Log Data

We want to inform you that whenever you use our Service, we collect data and information about your interaction with the site on the server called Log Data. This Log Data may include information such as your device Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser version, operating system version, the configuration of your custom Fields when utilizing our Service, the time and date of your use of the Service, and other statistics. This information is collected automatically and is used for debugging the site and for diagnosing anomalous behaviour.

Google Drive Access

If you choose to use the optional Service functionality to download a seasonal water use map to your Google Drive, permission will be sought and must be granted to allow the Service to access your Google Drive. The Service will only create a sub folder and place the water use map file (a GeoTIFF) into the folder. The Service will not read, modify or delete any other contents of your Google Drive. Using this feature will also result in an email being sent from the Service to your email account to inform you of the success or failure of this operation.

Cookies

Cookies are files with a small amount of data that is commonly used an anonymous unique identifier. These are sent to your browser from the website that you visit and are stored on your device internal memory.

This Service uses “cookies” explicitly to manage the login session and for user authentication. You have the option to either accept or refuse these cookies and know when a cookie is being sent to your device. If you choose to refuse our cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of this Service.

Service Providers

We use Google App Engine to host the Service on the cloud and Google Earth Engine to provide the remotely sensed data and to perform the geospatial calculations. We also use 3rd party providers of ground-based climate sensor data. The Service does not pass your Personal Information to either Google Earth Engine or to the 3rd party climate sensor data providers.

We want to inform users of this Service that only Google App Engine, in the capacity of hosting the website, has access to your Personal Information (name and email address). The reason is to allow user authentication to be performed by them on our behalf. However, they are obligated not to disclose or use the information for any other purpose.

Security

We value your trust in providing us your Personal Information, thus we are striving to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. But remember that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Links to Other Sites

This Service may contain links to other sites. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that site. Note that these external sites are not operated by us. Therefore, we strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of these websites. We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party sites or services.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. Thus, you are advised to review this page periodically for any changes. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. These changes are effective immediately after they are posted on this page.
